

Sundays with an American Girl®: Book Discussions, Movie and Crafts

For Girls in Grades 3 - 5

Celebrating our 4th year of this popular book discussion series! This year, we're focusing on modern and historical figures and we are including an American Girl® movie and discussion in January. The books focus on how strong girls face their problems.

The first 20 Danbury residents to sign up for a book discussion, will receive a free book, courtesy of the FRIENDS of the Danbury Library.

Each book discussion will include a snack and a craft.

Meet Julie

Set in the 1970's, Julie Albright doesn't want to move away from her San Francisco neighborhood near Chinatown, because moving means leaving her best friend and her pet rabbit. It also means leaving her dad, since her parents are divorced. Julie tries to make the best of it by joining the school's basketball team, but the coach won't allow girls to play. She learns that it's up to her to make positive changes in her new school – and her new life.

Craft: decorate a photo frame
